

Integrated Approach to Protecting Environment

Integrated Approach to Protecting Environment

A Guide for Planners and Field workers

Abid Ullah Jan

Contents

1 Introducing Environmental Planning for Small Communities:

2 Getting the Right People Involved

Forming a Planning Team
Finding Local Experts
Working with Local organisations
Encouraging Public Participation

3 Developing a Community Vision

Involving the Community
Asking the Right Questions
Pulling the Vision Together

4 Defining Community's Needs

What Are the Boundaries of The Environmental Planning Area?
What Environmental Regulations Affect The Community?
Do Any Environmental Problems Threaten Public Health, Ecosystems, or the Quality of Life in The Community?
How Effective Are The Community's Environmental Facilities?
Is The List of Needs Adequate To Meet The Community's Vision for the Future?

5 Finding Feasible Solutions for The Community

Technology and Management Options for Small Communities: An Overview
Evaluating Costs for Technology and Management Options
Narrowing the Options
Finding Solutions: Drinking Water
Finding Solutions: Wastewater
Finding Solutions: Solid Waste
Finding Solutions: Hazardous Waste
Finding Solutions: Nonpoint Source Pollution
Finding Solutions: Underground Storage Tanks

6 Putting the Plan Together

Targeting the Problems
Setting Priorities for Action
Looking at the Big Picture

7 Implementation: Putting the Plan Into Action

Developing a Schedule for Putting the Plan Into Action
Financing the Plan
Roles of Government and Other Organizations
Roles of Community Members
Evaluating and Revising the Plan